The RTD has several more new or extended lines that I want to call to your attention. The 88 line that was designed to serve U.C.L.A. and Westwood from the San Fernando Valley has been extended to serve the Los Angeles International Airport from Van Nuys. For the many thousands of people who now use the airport and the additional thousands who will use it in the future, this line should be a must. If driving weren't enough add to it the nerve wracking job of finding a parking spot and you see how RTD helps.

The RTD 46 line has been extended west on Slauson Avenue from Broadway to La Brea. One more pain in the neck removed. This makes it possible to go from Huntington Park to Slauson & La Brea without transferring.

The RTD 114 line has been extended to the newly completed Dominguez State College. This will help students with a budget problem or those who have no car. The line directly serves students living in the Lynwood, Compton area while providing access from other lines in the Paramount, Bellflower, and Norwalk areas.

If you like Martha and I you just might have a few unscheduled in-laws bedding down over the holidays, now chances are they will want to see the Rose Parade, or the floats or maybe Pasadena before or after the parade. RTD does a real bang up job in this area and you might be smart to consider the bus.

Received a wonderful letter from a little lady in Artesia who told me the New 132 line is just great. She says he can now shop at Stonewood Shopping Center and if they don't have what she wants she can go on to Lakewood.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY
People who say they sleep like a baby, usually don't have one.

Q. Living in the beach area has its rewards, but getting to work is something else. What is the best way to get to L.A. from Redondo Beach? Miss T.M.

A. The 125 line is by far the best and if you've been driving you'll save a bundle. Catch the bus at Torrance & Catalina. I'll send you a timetable and a map.

Q. I saw an add in the paper about a line to El Camino College. Doesn't the same 101 line the ad mentioned serve the Hermosa Beach area? I will be attending classes soon and I want to know about this service. Mrs. S.Y.

A. Seems to me you already know about the 101 line, but in case you're confused I'll send you a timetable.

Q. How can I get from Lawndale to Compton and back again. I live near Crenshaw & Rosevans Mrs. O.L.

A. Gardena City lines has service in that area. Take the RTD 101 line to Manhattan Beach Blvd. & Crenshaw and change to the Gardena 3 line. If you need more information, give Gardena City lines a call.

Q. How can I get to Fort McArthur from Compton? Is there a bus that goes there or do I have to transfer? Mr. L.M.

A. The 33 line on Willowbrook in Compton will take you to Wilmington where you can change to the 66 line to San Pedro. There is a San Pedro bus Co. that serves the Fort from downtown San Pedro.
